The Charlotte Racers Expo Car Corral is designed to unite potential buyers with sellers of various "rolling" stock inventory such as racecars and trailers. All sales are private, between buyer and seller, and the Charlotte Racers Expo is not held responsible for any applicable taxes, fees, liens, faults, frauds, misrepresentations or otherwise negligence on the part of either buyer or seller. The Charlotte Racers Expo reserves the right to refuse any item from being sold through the car corral.

1. All cars must be checked in during open consignment check-in as indicated on the event schedule. No car may be checked in later than 11am on Friday, January 27. Payment is due at check-in.
2. All cars must be able to be moved and situated by the seller(s). Event staff will not be available for assistance in the car corral.
3. All items must be resale ready and in sellable condition; cars must be cleaned and void of any leaks such as oils, fuels, water, etc.. Any sharp or jagged edges must be dulled, removed, or taped over to prevent injury to show attendees. Sellers are responsible for the cost any cleanup of fluids or materials dropped from their property.
4. It is recommended that sellers place a visible asking price on their item(s) in addition to contact information such as a name and mobile phone number. Most sellers will not want to stand next to their items for the entire show. It is also recommended to have a "sold" sign on-hand in the event that the item cannot be moved immediately upon its sale to prevent further inquiries.
5. All sellers will be charged $50 per item in the corral regardless of if the item sells or not.
6. Charlotte Racers Expo cannot be held liable for any damage to seller's property.
